We then asked parents the following in order to get comments and these were the responses;

“In your opinion what are Mulberry’s strengths?”

‘Teaching- it is a relaxed setting’

‘Teachers always inform me about concerns regarding my child and will listen to my concerns’

‘Meeting the needs of the individual child’

‘Good communication between home and school’

‘The staff (especially Lois) make Josh feel wanted and understand his difficulties and needs’

‘They are an effective stepping stone to further developments’

“In your opinion what do you think Mulberry could improve?”

‘Mulberry needs more available teaching staff’

‘Residential- I’ll drop him off Monday and pick him up Friday!!!’

‘Support children in Mulberry to school leaving age’

If you wish, please add any further comments you feel would be helpful

'This is the first time my son has been truly happy and settled at a school and this is mostly due to the excellent teaching and support staff'

'Although the unit is productive- it's failing pupils by not being able to support pupils 1:1 due to the lack of staff'
